Let me get started here. Many of you guys know I made a video pointing out the stupidity in some rtr members. People think I'm “demoralizing” the user base, while I’m just trying to help the site. Being toxic will drive people away. In this doc, I will point out some problems with the forums that make them not a dystopia, but not a utopia either.

1. Context on my video

https://youtu.be/e7eN59OHYaw?si=-VGPTqWytoIP5SsK

In case you aren’t aware, I called out a few people who cause problems for RTR, mainly three people. Those three people being Mnep, Noova, and Helmut (also known as Sole/Rzlff/Ur_Pyongyang.) There are other people who do the same things as them, but not notably or enough for me to include them here. But anyways they have been causing problems for months, whether that’s causing useless drama or harassing people. They seem to think I’m demoralizing them, a term that is thrown around a lot, but that couldn’t be further from the truth.

Here are some instances of harassment or dramas conducted by these people. Some of them are old, but they show that these people have not changed at all, that’s why I am including them.

A few hours after they woke up, I was called a meat rider, dragged into an argument, and slandered by members of a group chat full of rtr members. If you would like to see it, I will post a few screenshots. And for an honorable mention, I had my DMS spammed by mnep! The screenshot for that is also below.

There were also videos and threads made about my video/videos about the situation involving Leo, which I will get into later.

https://rtforumsreborn.boards.net/thread/2816/great-leoist-crash-out

https://rtforumsreborn.boards.net/thread/2818/highly-recommend-giving-watch https://rtforumsreborn.boards.net/thread/2822/response-tems-rant

When I use the term harassment, I am not loosely throwing it around. There have been many acts of harassment going on for months. And ironically, it's almost, if not always, the same people contributing to the harassment.

Some defense: Helmut isn't too bad with the harassment part, but that doesn't mean he is completely absent from the topic. He was involved in an act of harassment recently that I am not going to name because well, you probably already know what I am talking about.

2. Leo situation

This was the main traction of my video. A joke about Leo being a cat lady started in a group chat, and got out of hand very fast. Leo was spammed In group chats and added to group chats by Noova and Helmut, repeatedly spammed with the joke. That's when it turned into harassment. And yes, it was harassment. Here is the definition of harassment, as it very clearly describes what was going on during this situation.

https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1139265693880156302/1363915516359479639/IMG_6102.png?ex=6807c4cf&is=6806734f&hm=01e230aa4d96bb26e4dbbdd7c1a0ef20bd48ad86929285c174f53ad9392b786e&

Anyways what is even more disgusting was how mnep5 handled it, especially since one of the people contributing to this was a literal moderator. Mnep refused to punish anyone who was directly involved in the situation. Instead, he viewed Leo as the bad guy and even joined in by harassing Leo behind his back. So essentially, mnep didn't even care to care that Leo was being attacked, and he could very easily see the whole thing going on, as it was in a group chat he was in. Here are a few screenshots of mnep's reaction to this whole thing.

But anyways this situation is ongoing and they don't even have remorse for it, that's the sad part. So yeah try not to get involved in this situation if you haven't already.

3. Moderation

Let me cut to the chase, moderation on rtr is not good whatsoever. This would be different if the moderation team wasn't so one sided and immature. If someone is causing a legitimate problem on the forums, it is never addressed by a higher up. And sadly most of the problems are caused by the moderators. Either by harassing people for quitting the site or telling people to be harassed to “take a joke.” Here are some instances of problems being caused by moderators.

I understand that the mods want to be lenient, however there is a degree to where mods need to step up and do something about it. However they don’t want to do this because they fear people will quit because the site is too strict. If people are being bothered and mods don’t want to do anything about it, people will quit. I’ve seen it plenty of times before. This place has gotten more out of hand, and turned into an anarchical playground like the RblxTrade forums and I blame the mods for not trying to stop it.

I’m going to give some criticism to the moderation team.

Mod 1. Mnep5

He is the person who allows the moderation team to act so freely and immature. When moderators act immature, he never addresses it or disciplines the moderator. Mnep only wants to moderate unless he needs to (I.e, illegal content is posted.) He constantly goes on about free speech and such, but there is a point where it needs to be monitored. For example, if someone has a controversial opinion such as, “furries are cool,” there is no need to moderate it. And no, I am not a furry. However, if someone says something like “communism is good,” then that post needs to be censored. Even mods on RblxTrade filtered that. Here is a screenshot of someone’s ban for saying that they like communism.

https://media.discordapp.net/attachments/1139265693880156302/1363924060530151504/Screenshot_2025-04-21_130703.png?ex=6807ccc4&is=68067b44&hm=61edbeb11a518609aeae844557e715179a15bfff2b48fd8306042c7f464a34d9&=&format=webp&quality=lossless

I asked mnep if he would allow someone to make a post with antisemetic opinions, and he said that he wouldn’t have a say on whether it stayed because proboards would close rtr, kind of proving that he would only moderate to save the site. Here is a screenshot.

https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1139265693880156302/1363924398632866013/Screenshot_2025-04-21_130821.png?ex=6807cd15&is=68067b95&hm=4a3d2776b45f6c2d5192af85d253859a82ef02e5d041bfe9b41fd620d6ce8f2d&

Mod 2. Noova

Noova is another clone of mnep. He treats him like a god the exact same way he did to Leo. And if someone criticizes mnep, Noova is automatically on his defense team. He lets way too many things slide and it gets out of hand. For example, he doesn't stop drama and he believes that it is good for the site. No, it is not. Satirical drama is a different story, that's just playful fun, however when it comes to actual toxic arguments, that needs to be stopped immediately. Drama was the root cause of RblxTrade shutting down, and before anyone says "DoXt WaNtEd To ShUt DoWn ThE sItE fOr MoNtHs," yes that is true. However, he only wanted to because of the stupid drama you guys made on the forums. Logic can and already has vouched for me on that.

Mod 3. General moderator

When it comes to the general moderator, you hardly get to do anything. You can view emails, pin threads, lock threads, and that's about it. This is coming from someone who was a general moderator btw. There is no way to ban people, which can cause problems if a moderator is sleeping and something bad happens.

I understand that it is fun, but it is useless as the moderator doesn't get any real power. And if an untrustworthy person wins the vote, emails can be leaked. Thank God that this hasn't happened yet, but it very well could.

Anyways the moderation team is not good at all and they need some sort of guidelines to follow in order to keep things civil.

4. Conclusion

It is absolutely disgusting to see the forums in their current situation. It isn't that hard to not be stupid. I'll still use the forums how they should be used and not be stupid like some people are, the stupidity of some of the members isn't stopping me from using them. Here's a few more things before I go

- If you constantly d ride mnep and his every move, please shut up. You are being very annoying. Like please just be your own person and stop being so one-sided.
- If someone doesn't want you to use their face in thumbnails, don't use it. It's their face, they can control how you use it or if you use it at all.
- Drama is not good for the website. It is actually a reason why many newcomers do not actively post. If it is a joke, then that is different.
- Discord did not kill the forums. They were actually more alive WITH a Discord server for people to post on.

Anyways that's about all I have to say. And no, I did not write this in one sitting. I have a life outside of the internet, y'know.

Yes, this was inspired by logic's doc in 2022, before you point out the similarities and say I "copied it."
